

H.C. Burleigh Papers

Flanagan

DATE	RECEIVED
	2824
	5.1 / 53
FILE	20

linson gave the address. The choir led the singing and Dorland Jackson and daughters rendered an appropriate selection.

There was a good attendance at the worship service Sunday evening, when the junior choir, led by Mrs. Ted

MRS. JANE FLANAGAN

Stella. — Mrs. Jane Flanagan, a well-known resident of Amherst Island, passed away at her home here on April 16. She was born on the island 84 years ago, the daughter of the late John Dennee and Mary Jane Bailey.

Left to mourn her loss are four daughters, Mrs. Harry Westwood (Mary Ellen), Mrs. Hugh Drumgoole (Minerva), Katie, and Mrs. Arthur Wemp (Violet), all of Amherst Island. Her husband, John Flanagan, died 36 years ago. Two sisters, Grace and Ellen, and four brothers, Thomas, Robert, Ernest and Frederick, also have died. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. John Brown (Catherine), of Detroit, Mich.; and Mrs. Ernest Teney (Minerva), of Belleville; also nine grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from her home to Christ Church, Emerald. Rev. H. C. Secker, of Kingston, and Rev. W. B. Williston, of Stella, officiated.

Pall-bearers were Kenneth Miller, Edward Wemp, Ross Filson, Francis Welbanks, John Eves and Bruce Caughey.

Flower-bearers were Charles Eves, Ralph Wemp, Arnold Smith, Gerald Kearney, Bill Kilpatrick, Albert Henderson, Irwin Henderson, Estel Strain and Edward Mills. Interment was in Glenwood Cemetery.

see that standard shift up on the steering column!"

MAY IS SAFETY MONTH

CHECK YOUR CAR
CHECK YOUR DRIVING
PREVENT ACCIDENTS

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs.
Harold Tupah.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ryder, of Kingston, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin
I

Nap

NAPAN

responsibility," the speaker said.

A well - prepared tape recording, answering fully the basic questions regarding the new organization, was played and is available for all local associations to borrow for use in program. It concludes with the promise that "as church union has worked for 35 years,
so will this new organization

